

Meridian Risk Group

Brand Voice · Illustrative example

1. Tone and structure

Tone	Precise and neutral. State findings, not opinions.
Sentence style	Short, declarative sentences. One finding per sentence where possible.
Structure	Lead with the finding. Support with evidence after. Never build to a conclusion.
Attribution	Every claim traces to a labelled source. No unsourced assertions, even minor ones.

2. Vocabulary

Use	assessed, identified, confirmed, indicates, consistent with
Avoid	we believe, it seems likely, arguably, clearly, obviously

3. Before and after

Before

We believe the entity is likely linked to the network, though this is not fully confirmed.

After

Corporate filings link the entity to the network. Ownership records confirm a shared director.